November 2017

Jacoba's jottings... an article in the Weekly Connection (October 22, 2017) from the Illinois South Conference by Rev. Shana Johnson has added some levity to the church office in the last week. Shana had heard an NPR 'throwback' podcast entitled "Can You Tell Your Life Story in Exactly Six Words?" We have been playing with how we would describe our lives in six words. A few of the quotes below are ours; some come from the NPR Show. How would you describe your life in six words, not more – not less? We were amazed at how quickly the six words came to us.

I picked passion. Now I'm poor.
I am blessed by my children.
I still make coffee for two.
A thorn in everyone's side
Living alone, loving cats, growing flowers.
Not quite what I was planning.
Servng God as a UCC pastor.

Five years ago, I was assigned to put my theology in six words; not more, not less. I came up with "God's love for us never ends," As you know, that has become my mantra. Could you say what you believe in six words – not more – not less?

Pastor Shana went on to write, "The idea of six words is to think clearly and succinctly, how you might write about your life's story. As I considered this creative writing prompt, I thought about how interesting it would be to apply it to a local church. What six words we would use to tell our church's story could be very revealing. What might these six words reveal about our mission? Our beliefs? Our commitments? Our joys? Our struggles? Our victories? Most importantly, what might those words reveal about our faith?"

I have wondered what we might say in six words about UCC, Neillsville. We each have our own understanding who/what UCC is for us. What are the six words that describe UCC for you? Or maybe what are the six words you wish described UCC? I have played around with some phrases and I will share them with you, but first I want to hear your words. We will have note cards for you on Sunday morning – or send me an email with your six words. nuccpastor@gmail.com

PASTOR 2nd JACOBA'S PAGE

What a joy to see the church on Sunday mornings. One week I saw:

- † children practicing songs in the sanctuary
- † Choir practicing in "Choir Room"
- † three confirmands/mentors reading Gospel of Luke.

And then a few minutes later

- † two classes of children learning lessons
- † in the nursery parents with toddlers
- † members talking with Audrey
- † folks visiting in the Narthex

World Communion Sunday included three breads from other countries – thank you Sue Vornholt. The choir sang "De Colores" with a Spanish solo by Pastor Mohr. Bravo! While we were worshipping the Men's Club grilled some very tasty chicken.

The Children sang energetically "This Little Light of Mine" on the second Sunday of October. Thank you, Jenna and helpers for working with them. A video can be found on the members only Facebook page.

Deon was willing to help out on the choir anthem and then played for the entire service Oct. 22. Eileen, Karen and Deon are each gifted musicians. We are also blessed by the music skills of Donita and Corinne who are directing the choir. Thank you to all who help lead the congregation with their musical talents.

Last week the Stewardship Committee led the worship service. Wendy and Craig were inspiring as they helped us remember our own faith journeys. Thank you, too, to Joy Abel, Sue Voigt and Bonnie Weyer who led the service.

A big thank you to Donita for cleaning all the toys and furniture in the nursery.

Thanks too, to Deon who gave many hours to hook up and update our computers after we changed internet providers.

WHERE NOW?

OCTOBER 30 7:00 in the Lounge

Around twenty people met in March of 2016 to talk about moving the church from maintenance to mission in a process called "SHiFT". In the summer 2017 seven to ten members read the book Weird Church: Welcome to the Twenty-first Century. We think there might be places where the SHiFT

Document and what was gleaned from the book will intersect. At this gathering we will discuss that intersection, who we are as a church and where we understand the Holy Spirit is leading us today. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.

CD's & Confirmation Class Raking Leaves 1

CONFIRMATION

The CDs and Confirmation Class raked leaves for Interfaith C Older Youth and Adult Helpers October 25 during their regular class time. Many thanks to the adult chaperones: Jenny Romens Erickson, Tammy Loberg, Cindy Moseid, Jim Sjolin and Pastor Jacoba. On November 10-12, the Confirmation Class is going to Moon Beach for the Faith Formation Retreat. The sessions will focus on the Sacraments. Ellie Keller, Bonnie Weyer and Pastor Jacoba will chaperone the class.

ALL SAINTS DAY – NOVEMBER 5

We will again have a special service remembering church members who have died in the last year and those at whose services I officiated. Families will be invited to come forward, light a candle and say a sentence or two about their loved one. After those who died since last November are remembered, then all who would like to light a candle in memory of someone who died are invited to come forward. The service concludes with the Sacrament of Holy Communion served by intinction. Our service at the Neillsville Retirement Community on the 5th at 3pm will also include remembrances of those who have died and the Sacrament of Holy Communion with music by Eileen.

CAMP SUNDAY – CAMPITAL CAMPAIGN

While I am at Moon Beach, Glenn Svetnicka the Executive Director of our church camps at Moon Beach (St. Germaine) and Pilgrim Center (Ripon) will lead worship. I am sure you will enjoy his leadership and learn more about our camps as you do. The Children will also sing this Sunday.

BIBLES FOR CHURCH FAMILIES

The Board of Christian Education is purchasing Story Bibles for families with children in Sunday School. Pastor Jacoba has samples to look at and will order the Bibles for any family who wants one.

November Newsletter 2017

Hi Everyone,

It's time for the November Newsletter. What a nice warm October we had, but now it feels like November is really coming. It is cold today. I guess I will get my winter coat out now. We have not had a freeze here in town yet. I was waiting for it to freeze so I could finish cleaning up the gardens. I heard the word snow so maybe this is the week. October had a few important activities going on. We began with World Wide Communion on October 1. We hope you liked the different kinds of bread that were served? I heard from some of you that you liked it. I guess the biggest news in October was the changing of our internet service to Spectrum. Remember the new email addresses for the office is Neillsvilleuccoffice@gmail.com and Pastor Jacoba's is nuccpastor@gmail.com. We did have the 3rd Congregational Quarterly meeting on Sunday, October 22. If you are interested in any of the reports you can find them here in the office or they are on the back bulletin board in the narthex.

Now we should get to the November calendar! Sunday, November 5 will be All Saints Sunday. Pastor Jacoba has this in her report. The next BIG event in our church will be the 53rd Annual HOLIDAY FAIR on Saturday, November 11. Be sure to look at our flier (note the new time – 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.) Also new this year. we are serving a Brunch from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. We know a lot of you help with your time and talents for this day. The baked goods, crafts, New to You Treasures and much more is all due to many of you. We sure hope to see all of you there. Come and enjoy and take in the brunch.

The 2nd Half Group will be meeting again this month on Tuesday, November 21. Then of course we remember Thanksgiving Day on November 23. On Sunday, November 26 (following worship service the hanging of the greens) M.E. and crew will need help getting our church ready for the Advent season. Check out the November calendar for dates and times for all our activities.

See you in church! – Audrey

Stewardship Committee & Trustees

Stewardship Committee ~ Feeling Grateful for Great Generosity!

We recognized Stewardship Sunday on Oct. 22 with a special service based on the theme for 2017: Journey to Generosity. It was our time to think about all the ways we can support our church, especially what we can give financially in the coming year to help continue the important work of mission and ministry. All members had the opportunity to bring forward their offering envelopes and Faith Promise cards. (Pastor was right – bringing them forward did add extra meaning to the moment!) The following prayer was read by the congregation:

We dedicate these gifts toward the enrichment of our life as a covenant community – a community created by God who has brought us together to be UCC, Neillsville. May God bless our gifts and our promises, multiplying them so that God's work is done in the world now and in the future.

Also during the service Wendy and Craig Sigurdson spoke to the congregation. They shared how important being a member of a church has been to them during their lives and their thoughts on what it means to be a good steward of the church. Craig and Wendy have certainly done a great job of sharing their time, talent and treasure with our church, both now and in the past. We are lucky to have them as such dedicated members and would like to thank them not only for their heartfelt words on Stewardship Sunday but for all they do for Neillsville UCC as well.

Our committee would also like to thank Pastor Jacoba for helping us plan and prepare the service. Your guidance is always a blessing. We enjoyed hearing the congregation chime in during prayer time to share what makes our church special- hearing what is important to others made us all realize what a welcoming, involved and unique place Neillsville UCC really is! We are also thankful to Karen Mohr for the beautiful music and we appreciated how Audrey, Jim and Al had everything we needed ready for the service so things ran smoothly.

Most importantly we are grateful for all of our members who continually share their time, talent and treasure in any way for the benefit of others; both members of our church, and members of our community near and far. We are all blessed to be part of such a giving and generous church. With your help we will continue to support the ministry God has given us now and in the future.

Faithfully Yours,

The Stewardship Committee~ Joy Abel, Marge Goetsch, Sue Voigt and Bonnie Weyer.

If you have not returned your Faith Promise card yet you may do so at any time. You can mail it in, drop it off in the office or just place it in the offering plate the next Sunday you are at church. The Trustees will use these to help make budgetary plans for the future. Thank you!

Holiday Fair – “Bake Shop”

We hope that our “Bake Shop” tables will be filled with lots of cookies, candy, bars, pies, quick breads, yeast breads, rolls, doughnuts, or whatever your favorite recipe is. Other popular items are jams, pickles, pickles, honey, maple syrup or honey. Produce sells well also. Your help in filling our tables would be most appreciated. Please bring in your items early on the morning of the Holiday Fair (Saturday, November 11) 8:00-8:30 a.m. if possible. Remember please do not cut the bars. We will do that. It does help if you cut the bars around the edge of the pan while they are warm for easier removal.

Help is always needed in our “Bake Shop” the day of the sale. If you would like to help or have questions call: Darlene Mueller 715-743-2357.

Note: Next Circle of Friends meeting will be on Thursday, November 16 at 1:30 p.m. a week later than the usual second week of the month.

Again, our deepest sympathy goes the family and friends of June Feely

Second Half Group On Tuesday, October 17 we had a nice group of 23 people attend the Second Half Group. We had a delicious M&M lunch and our guest speaker for the day was Ryan Neill, CEO of Memorial Medical Center. A detailed description and talk was presented on the proposed new hospital. Many questions and answers were asked. An interesting and informative discussion. Next month, November 21 at 12 noon Charles Ramberg will talk on the drugs here in Clark

Dishes-Dishes-Dishes I was told to put in the newsletter that there are many dishes/pans left here at the church downstairs in the kitchen. These have been left here from funerals etc. Please go down and take a look to see if any of them belong to you. If they are not picked up – you may find them in the Holiday Fair’s “New to You Treasure’s.”

Campital Campaign Fund Raiser – It is that time of the year again! We have raised $5,000 for our 2016 commitment to the Campital Campaign. We are committed to raising $5,000 for 2017. This is our only fundraiser for the Campital Campaign. These monies will be used to refurbish the UCC camps here in Wisconsin. Our goal is to raise $5000.00 per year for 3 years. We are working our way to this year’s total plus more if we can do so. We are also accepting money donations. As usual if you write out a check please designate on the memo line “Campital Campaign.” This year we are offering vegetable/meat pies and just meat pies. We are offering two size pies.
