“Those who wait for the Lord, shall renew their strength” Isaiah 40:31

Jacoba's jottings... As most of you are aware, I traveled to Colorado last month for a continuing Education event. expecting to discuss the book, Weird Church. There was little discussion of what we read; instead we experienced what the book recommends. Meeting in deep listening groups, we waited for the Holy Spirit to guide our conversations. It was a powerful experience as we discussed our ministries and our lives as pastors. In our groups we centered ourselves, and allowed silence before and after speaking. We learned again that those who wait for the Lord will renew their strength and be led by the Holy Spirit.

Estes Park

While, my small group didn't talk so much about our "weird" ministries, I did hear about what pastors were doing across the US. I was most touched by ministry taking place in Toledo, Ohio. Eleven years ago, Steve moved his young family to Toledo. He did not serve a church, but instead walked in the city, listening to people he encountered and their needs. He realized the folks on the street needed medical care and so bought a bus, transformed it into a moveable medical clinic, sought out Medical Students and together they offered medical care. Each Saturday, he and others take sandwiches, a bag of chips in a lunch bag and while passing them out are open to conversation if the person wants to talk. The first Saturday of the month, Steve opens his home to anyone who wants to come for supper and then they have an open microphone. Some people tell stories, some share poems, some songs. The evening goes on until the last person leaves; then Steve straightens up his house again. I asked about theft – Steve says, yes, some folk do steal – adding, anytime we are generous, we can expect some will take advantage of the situation. I asked about funding for his ministry – he works part time jobs; a few friends offer donations. He is now serving half time in a traditional church. Soon he will begin a new church start, building on relationships he has taken eleven years to form.... They that wait upon the Lord...

I continue to wonder where God is calling us. And honestly, listening for the Spirit is not for your pastor to do alone. We need as a congregation to do that. What I also learned in listening to my colleagues and what we read in the book, is that we need to listen to the community where we live. What are our needs? What are our resources and with whom can we partner? We have some ideas already percolating; we have some folks listening to the needs and resources of the community. As we continue to do these things, we need to be listening for our Still-Speaking God. Will you pray with me, asking God to guide our ministry?

Confirmation Classes have begun. We have six students and mentors: Dayne Loberg, (Carole Romens), Karsen Czarnecki (Don Abel), Tye Kranz (Jim Filitz), Santana Subke (Tim Voigt), Mackenzie Keller (Sue Vornholt), and Mason Roenz (Russ Karl). In addition, we have four teaching assistants: Larry Marshall, Jim Sjolin, Don Abel and Mike Perkl. Thank you, folks for your help in guiding these young people in a faith that will support them throughout their lives.

We are using a new curriculum, re:form. It begins with a study about the Bible. The first session was “Who Wrote the Bible, God or Humans?” – the confirmands appreciated a definition of inspired (breathed in -as in God breathes in). The second lesson was “Is the Bible True?” The third lesson is “Why Does the Bible Contradict Itself at Times?”. We have had some interesting conversations and activities as we wrestle with these questions.

Because we have a number of adults working with me, these conversations have also taken place outside of class among the adults. We have had interesting conversations. I invite you to consider what you believe regarding the Bible too. I have wondered if there are some adults who want to look at the videos and discuss the questions in a four-week session.

CHRISTMAS ANGEL PROJECT

I received a letter from Prison Fellowship Ministries this month informing us that in 1982 they had trademarked and federally registered the name “Angel Tree” We either need to stop using that name or join their ministry (or face legal action). I contacted Stacy who told me that the official name according to the bylaws of our ministry is “Christmas Angel Project”. We must now use that name. I have had some trouble keeping the name straight in my head – so noticed the first letters spell CAP. I don’t intend for us to use CAP as a shorthand name – but it does help me to remember the order of the words in the name. Remembering this name is important. We must make this change in all our publications and in our conversations in the community. Please help share the official name of our ministry “Christmas Angel Project” whenever you have the opportunity.

HOLY SPIRIT – SERMON SERIES

Folks tell me all the time, Pastor I know who God is, I know Jesus, but I just don’t get the who and what of the Holy Spirit. I feel called to preach some sermons and maybe lead a Bible Study on the Holy Spirit and will do that in the month of October. Tell me what you want to know. Name your questions and I will attempt to respond on Sunday mornings.

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY - AND CHICKEN DINNER October 1

We will serve communion in the pews so that we might all eat and drink as one people. Again we will have a variety of breads from other nations. Join us. The worship service will be followed by our Potluck Dinner with the grilled chicken prepared by the UCC Men’s Club. Bring a side dish or dessert, your place setting and enjoy fellowship around the table.

500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION

500 years ago, Martin Luther nailed 95 Theses on the doors of the Wittenberg Church. His actions laid the groundwork of the Reformation of the Catholic Church. Pastor Jim Mohr and I will help our congregation celebrate this important even in church history during worship on October 29.

INTERFAITH VOLUNTEER CAREGIVERS FALL CLEANUP SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28

The Confirmation Class and CDs will again participate in leaf raking for older adults in Neillsville. Recently, we have also had a number of our adults help with the project and driving the youth from place to place. Bring your rakes – tarps, and leaf blowers if you have them and can help. Those who need our assistance are asked to contact Judy Morrow at (715) 743-2885.

This fall UCC is again hosting all the groups who will participate. Breakfast will be served at 8:30 am and lunch is often also offered at UCC. My hunch is Betty Opelt would appreciate hearing from anyone who can assist.

October Newsletter 2017

Hi Everyone,

Where did September go? I can't believe we are in the last week of my favorite month. Thank you everyone for the birthday cards. I had a great birthday. Family and friends are so good to me. I got to go to the Marshfield fair this month and enjoyed a couple of concerts and had some good fair food including a cranberry cream puff. I also got to go to the Cranberry Fest in Warrens. It was HOT! 92 degrees; we got there at 6:30 a.m. and it was not too bad then but by 10:30 a.m. it was too hot to stay. I ended up at Wal Mart where it was nice and cool and then we treated ourselves to a Culvers "turtle sundae." I hear that a lot of you are happy that we are back to our 10:00 a.m. worship time. That's good! CD's, Confirmation and Sunday School have all started and the church is full of activity again. October starts out with World Communion Sunday, October 1, our Neighbors in Need special offering and then following worship service our ANNUAL POTLUCK CHURCH PICNIC will take place. The UCC Men's Club will be furnishing the grilled chicken and the rest of us will be bringing a dish to pass. We hope you come and enjoy some good food and fellowship!

See you in church! – Audrey

World Communion Sunday
October 1 and Neighbors in

Stewardship Sunday is coming soon!!!

Stewardship Sunday will be celebrated this year on Sunday, October 22. This year's theme, "Journey to Generosity ~ The Way of Jesus" takes shape from this passage in Matthew 9:35-10:23, when Jesus said to his disciples:

"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few: therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." (Matthew 9:37-38)

If we relate this passage to our lives as Christians in a faith community, it's easy to see that the plentiful harvest is God's blessings and we are the laborers. God expects us to give our time, talent and treasure to help gather the bounty and share it with our church community, and the world. God expects us to be generous because God is generous. This is the very essence of making a stewardship commitment.

In the coming weeks we will have several members of the congregation speaking to us during worship about their personal journey to generosity. We encourage you to think about your own journey and how your generosity helps the church and its mission.

Soon you will be receiving a packet in the mail urging you to consider your financial donation for the coming year. We are so fortunate to have an active church and congregation that does many wonderful things for our members and the community. However we need your support to continue doing these important things, to keep our building up and running, to support our congregation and to undertake new missions that need our help. Our church offers several ways in which you can make donations: weekly offering envelopes, monthly automatic giving, bill pay through your checking account, proceeds from stocks, special donations for specific causes, or wills and trust, etc. If you would like more information regarding any of these methods feel free to contact a Stewardship committee member or speak with Audrey in the office.

Please take some time to pray about what you can give, fill out the Faith Promise card that will be in the packet mailed to you and plan on attending church on October 22 when our Faith Promise cards will be received and dedicated. We will also be serving a light soup luncheon following the service. We hope you can join us in this important time of fellowship.

Faithfully Yours,

The Stewardship Committee
