“And two shall become one”

Jacoba's jottings.... Weddings are on my mind. Two become one! My two much-loved nephews are getting married this summer and fall. In addition, we will be invited to celebrate Bob and Lorraine Shaw's 70th Wedding Anniversary.

I watch as these three couples express their love; hands held, a kiss exchanged; a quick trip to New Orleans to celebrate a birthday, an early honeymoon to Italy, hiking and camping out East, a mission trip to Nicaragua, quiet conversations, walking their dog together, studying side by side. Bob and Loraine and other long time married couples tell me how they supported each other in want and in plenty, in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health. I hear stories of ski trips and camping, raising children, the hard work of owning a business farming and making ends meet. I am honored to watch as these three couples and others do the hard work and enjoy the fun times of two becoming and being one.

This two becoming one is God's hope for our relationships – and not only marital relationships. Jesus prayed for his disciples, that they and those who followed them would become one. At various times in our history Christians have worked to become one. Sometimes we failed yet often we found a way to work together claiming our unity in Christ. Today, this unity is fluid as churches unite in one area and not another- while remaining open to possibilities of working together for common causes.

Jesus was very clear that we are to love one another as he loves us. I believe this command is all inclusive. My heart breaks as I hear of continued fear and animosity among people. My heart breaks as I hear of children separated from their parents. My heart breaks as another innocent person is killed, sometimes by those who are supposed to protect them. My heart breaks as we refuse to find a way that regulate guns which are only meant to kill mass numbers of people. My hope is God will open our eyes and hearts so that we change our hearts and lives, letting go of fear, greed and believing that only our way is the way. It is our work as individuals and as a nation to find ways where we can become one, working toward justice for all. We need to acknowledge how as white people we took the land, their faith, their way of life from the Indians. We need to acknowledge how we continue to benefit from our white privilege while people of color struggle to make their way in the world. It is time to end the dividing rhetoric in our nation and work toward unity. God has brought us together, how can we now live together? May we work to become one offering justice and security for all. It is time again for we who claim to be Jesus followers to follow in his ways. It is hard work but imagine a world where we love one another as Christ has loved us. Imagine a world where there is justice and liberty for all. As in the wedding vows this unity, this pledge of faithful love will only be possible with the help of God.

PASTOR JACOB'S 2nd PAGE

Since I last wrote, much has taken place.

The Mission and Outreach Committee led us (and our community) in honoring farmers with an appreciation dinner. More than 100 farmers and their families attended. While acknowledging that things were tough, stories of hope and faith that it will improve also were expressed. I want to say thank you to all who supported this most faithful expression of love and compassion in our community.

After feeding the community on Saturday, on Sunday we enjoyed bidding on a variety of baked goods as Emile and Carla again led their crew in raising funds for our church.

Bakers and the bidders were generous. Thank you one and all!

It was with great joy that we confirmed six young people as they proclaimed their faith and also blessed Marshall Roenz bringing him into membership. I will share more about the confirmands in a separate article.

I thank Pastor Jim for leading our worship on Mother's Day, known in the church as the Festival of the Christian Home. I listened to the children sing- they were a small group, but they let us know with full voices that "Love Is Everywhere." Check out the children's music on our website (neillsvilleucc.org) and closed Facebook page. I also thank Julie Garber who led the service on Trinity Sunday, while also remembering those who died serving our nation in the prayers.

On May 20th we celebrated Pentecost and baccalaureate Sunday. Hannah and Sarah told us of their achievements and plans (Hannah will attend U-W Marshfield for two years – moving toward her interest in interior design. Sarah will attend U-W River Falls to study biology while at the same time continuing to develop her artistic abilities.) Erin and Emily sent word that they both plan to attend U-W Eau Claire moving in the direction of becoming teachers. All four girls acknowledged that their plans are subject to change. ☺

We have again been blessed by the beauty of flowers within and outside the building. I want to thank Audrey and Jim for providing a geranium planter for Confirmation Sunday, Doris and Carla for also adding to our Pentecost worship service with red geraniums. The Trustees have asked David Harnisch to give oversight to the landscaping that surrounds our building. He has already removed some weeds and is doing what needs to be done for our bushes. Bob Petkovsek painted the planters gracing our front entrance which Trink and Merrill then once again filled with lovely flowers. Kevin is again mowing and trimming the church grass. Bob Petkovsek added another row on our wall of Confirmand pictures. Bob was assisted by Wayne Voss. Audrey and Jim then inserted all the pictures back into the rows – a time consuming job. Much has been accomplished in the last month.

LOOKING AHEAD

On July 15 we will worship at the Lion's club Shelter on Ferguson Street behind Care and Rehab at 9am. Be sure to invite anyone you know who lives at Countryview Apartments, at Care and Rehab, and at Sunset and Riverside assisted living facilities to join us. There are also people who say they will only attend a worship service when it outdoors. Our worship service at the Lion's Club Shelter is a marvelous opportunity to invite them to worship with us.

July 22 is the day Eileen Zank will retire from playing our organ and piano. I have asked her to choose some hymns she enjoys and of course play some of her favorite pieces for prelude, special music, offertory and postlude. Please make every effort to come to worship God as Eileen leads us with some of her favorite songs.

August 12 is Fair Sunday this year. Come and join us worship God with Calvary.

SEND CARDS to CHURCH CAMPERS

Haylee Erickson and Reese Ziegler will be at camp June 10-16. Send a note addressed to them at

Moon Beach Camp

THE CONFIRMATION CLASS OF 2018

Mason Roenz, son of Mat and Jennifer;
Russ and Susie Karl, Mentors
*"Keep alert, stand firm in your faith,
be courageous, be strong.
Let all that you do be done in love."
I Corinthians 16:13-14*

Mason enjoys playing football, baseball and basketball, fishing and hunting. He is a thoughtful young man, asking questions and making statements that cause the rest of us to pause and think.

Marshall Roenz, son of Jennifer and Mat
*"As the Father has loved me,
so I have loved you; remain in my love."
John 15:9*

Marshall is the twin brother of Mason. He likes working puzzles, camping and being outside.

Tye Kranz, son of Michelle and Joe;
Jim Filitz, Mentor
*Now faith, hope, and love remain
these three things—
and the greatest of these is Love.
I Corinthians 13:13*

Tye enjoys baseball and hunting. He loves the woods and notices God's creation. He likes shooting his 22; has 8 dogs and 5 rabbits (shows them at the Fair) and likes math. Tye is a kind soul, sees the needs of others (especially his mentor) and responds with a compassionate heart.

Karsen Czarnecki, daughter of Neil Czarnecki and Kellie Murphy; Don Abel, Mentor
*"Hope in the LORD! Be strong!
Let your heart take courage!
Hope in the LORD!"
Psalm 27:14*

Karsen is working toward her 2nd degree black belt in martial arts. She enjoys snowboarding, photography, traveling, shopping, music and friends and family.

Karsen thinks and feels deeply. She asks the deep and hard questions of faith as she wrestles with what God does and does not do.

Dayne Loberg, son of Tammy and Keith,
Carole Romens, Mentor
*"May God encourage your heart and give you strength in every good thing you do or say."
II Thessalonians 2:17*

Dayne likes to go hunting; he plays the saxophone (and piano). He is involved in FFA and plays baseball.

Dayne has a sarcastic sense of humor enjoyed by his classmates, is quick witted, knows what he must do and does it.

Santana Subke, son of John Subke and Michelle Grap; Tim Voigt, Mentor
*"You are definitely my rock and my fortress;
Guide and lead me for the sake of your good name."
Psalm 31:3 (CEB)*

Santana enjoys baseball, basketball, hunting, and fishing. He is an active Boy Scout and likes math. Santana prefers being in the background, unless it comes to sports. He has a sense of humor and puts up with friends who like to tease him. Watch for him to become an Eagle Scout in the next few years.

MacKenzie Keller, daughter of Ellie Keller and Bob Keller; Sue Vornholt, Mentor
*"May the Lord direct your heart to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ."
II Thessalonians 3:5*

MacKenzie likes to run, sing, read, do math and figure skate. She plays volleyball, writes, draws and hunts. She is comfortable in front of a crowd and was the speaker at her eighth-grade graduation. Mackenzie enjoys a good argument and often wonders about the connection between faith and science.

I thank all who worked with our Confirmands to help them grow in their love of God and to become followers of Jesus.

Pastor Jacoba, Sue Vornholt and Bonnie Weyer will be attending the Wisconsin Conference Annual Meeting at Green Lake from Friday, June 8 through Sunday, June 10.

Starting on Sunday, June 10 Pastor Jacoba will be going to Moon Beach Church Camp. She will be chaperoning two of our kids, Haylee Erickson and Reese Ziegler who will be attending camp that week.

The following week Pastor Jacoba will be on vacation from June 20 through Tuesday, June 26.

2018 Baked Goods Fundraiser Summary

Reported by Emile Miller

Well as usual, the church members did not let this fundraising event down; we had 59 baked goods, which consisted of pies, bars, cookies, pizza, lasagna, cheesy hash browns, chicken pot pie, and breakfast casseroles, just to name a few. A GRAND TOTAL $5445.00 was raised. This year's money will go in the fundraising line of the budget and used for the downstairs parking lot, unless we do not meet budget, then it will be used for that. Thanks again for another successful year for the pie fundraiser!

The breakdown over the years is as follows:

2007 – 49 pies =	$2,043
2008 – 50 pies =	$2,408
2009 – 49 pies =	$3,960
2010 – 50 pies =	$5,200
2011 – 52 pies =	$5,385
2012 – 54 pies =	$5,065

(2018 Baked Goods Fundraiser Summary continued)

2013 – 41 pies = $4,325
2014 - 53 pies = $4,775
2015 - 40 pies = $3,445
2016 - 36 Baked Goods = $3,425
2018 - 59 Baked Goods = $5,375
