Jacoba's jottings.... These last three weeks, we have been hearing the story of Naomi, Ruth and Boaz from the book of Ruth. Our themes have centered on Extravagant Generosity and seeking our deepest hopes, taking faithful risks and holding our enduring values (October 27). In this issue of the Jottings, I want to share my own hopes, values and risks in the ministry of the church.

My deepest hopes include, of course growth in faith and numbers. The numbers are less important to me than that those of us in the church grow in our relationship with God and Jesus Christ. My hope is that we know we can call on and rely on God in the various experiences of our lives. In all things God's love never ends and the life, death and resurrection of Jesus means that we each are granted new life, not only at the end of our lives, but also each and every day. In addition, my hope is that we will follow Jesus out into the community.

Ever since living through the flood of 1993 and the hope we experienced as UCC churches in Pennsylvania came to Iowa/Illinois to help with clean-up, I have valued the ministry of mission beyond the community where I have lived. I also value the ministry of laying a foundation of faith and mission in our children and youth. My ministry over the years has also caused me to value the time I spend with older adults, supporting them as aging changes their lives. I do not take it for granted when someone invites me into their homes, rooms and lives; in other words, I value relationships within and beyond the church and will do what I can to help us connect to one another. We have so much to give to each other. I value that God has brought us together, each with our own gifts to share among each other.

Taking risks is not my strength; yet that may be a definition of taking a risk. Faithful risks mean doing our best while knowing we might fail and being ok with whatever the outcome. Sometimes, I take a risk in preaching, hoping that I am still being faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ as I offer a word that might divide us or cause some discomfort. I wish more often I would take risks in naming and becoming involved in issues of justice that gnaw at my heart. There is of course a risk each time the church tries something new such as when we invited farm families to a free appreciation lunch – not knowing who would help or who would come. There is a risk when we change a tradition and sometimes when we refuse to change. Faithful risks are worth the attempt, as long as we remain true to our hopes and values.

What are the hopes you seek, your enduring values, and what faithful risks are you willing to attempt? What causes you to give of your time, talent and treasure to support the ministry of the church?

I give of my time, talent and treasure because I want the love of God in Jesus Christ to be shared in the multitude of ways UCC does. I am willing to risk my gifts of time, talent and money because I trust that together we will serve God faithfully to the best of our abilities. May we each be extravagantly generous with what God has entrusted to us.

Jacoba's second page... I want to say thank you to our scripture readers these last couple of weeks. Sue Voigt, Paige Voigt and Sydney Subke read on October 13 the first chapter of Ruth. On October 20, our confirmands, Cali Moseid, Paige Voigt, Sydney Subke, Parker Voigt, Brody Bergemann, and Kole Miller read Ruth 2. Craig Sigurdson, Bryce Erickson and Parker Voigt will be our readers this coming Sunday reading Ruth 4. The readings have been long – having the different voices has helped us to hear more clearly the stories of Ruth.

I also want to thank Wendy and Craig for preparing and serving supper (and doing the dishes) for our confirmands, their mentors and parents. Betty Opelt brought some cookies and we enjoyed some of Michelle Grap's pumpkin bars. This was an opportunity for the mentors, parents, and confirmands to get to know each other. An additional bonus for me and the kids – Butch Subke was volunteered to go to the Faith Formation Retreat at Pilgrim Center with us. Thanks Butch.

As Audrey mentions, lots of work going on in the church right now for the Holiday Fair. Wendy is working to get the New to You Treasures organized – and people keep bring in more stuff – thank you to all who donated items. Also, regularly there are four or five folks making items on Wednesday nights for the Gift Boutique.

ALL SAINTS DAY November 3, 2019

10 am Worship (set clocks back)

We will remember church members who died (and those for whom Pastor Jacoba was asked to do a service) in the past year; honoring their memory and lifting them up to God and before the congregation. Families will light candles and be invited to share a brief memory.

After those who died in the past year have been remembered, all in the congregation who would like to name someone they grieve, are welcome to light a candle in their memory. The worship service will include the Sacrament of Holy Communion served at the altar.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

The class has been busy; we have class each week and to make up some missed classes, we also met on Oct 18 10am-2pm. (Thank you Karen Mohr, Wendy Sigurdson and M.E. Sjolín for assisting me). On that day, the confirmands used scripture readings to pray and learn how to use their Study Bibles. We then spent some time washing down all the orange chairs and tables in the Fellowship Hall and sorting and organizing the books in the cry room. (there are books to be donated – if you want any children's books – speak to me or the Board of Christian Education.) In the afternoon we played Jenga with Bible Questions.

The Class Schedule is as follows

October 30 –Raking leaves for the Interfaith Care-Givers
(We usually rake the leaves of church members)

November 6 –Help set-up for Holiday Fair

November 8-10 – Faith Formation Retreat,
Pilgrim Center, Ripon Bonnie Weyer. Butch Subke and I chaperoning

November 13, 20 Class

November 27 – Thanksgiving Break

December 4 – Decorating the Sanctuary Christmas Tree

December 12, 19 Class

SECOND-HALF

On October 15, Kirk Rodman presented a talk about Veterans while also honoring the Veterans who were among us. The eleven of us who heard Kirk's stories gleaned from his experiences at the Highground, had our hearts touched.

All of us were well-fed by Jenna Sigurdson of M & M Catering.

On November 19, I will present the program at 2nd-Half on my trip to Greece. The title of the program is "Ephesus, Thessaloniki, Philippi, Corinth and Athens: The Communities of the Early Christian Churches." Jenna will again serve our meal – so reservations are needed. We meet at noon to eat with the program following. I will present a similar program for the "Sun Catchers" on November 21 at 10 am.

November Newsletter 2019

Hi Everyone, Jim and I are back from our vacation to New York City. We had a great time! I thought September went fast but when you go away for 9 days in the month and come back you find out that October is almost done and its time for the November Newsletter. Our busy time of year is here and lots of activity has been going on here at the church. The Holiday Fair worknights have been busy and from what I see we will have some nice things to purchase at our Holiday Fair on Saturday, November 9. We had an October 5 wedding; the “pie auction” on October 6 was a success, the 2nd Half Group met on October 15, the Sun Catcher’s Café met on October 17, the 3rd Quarterly meeting of our church will meet on Sunday, October 27 and the Confirmation class are planning on raking leaves on Wednesday, October 30. Be sure to look at the November calendar for the dates and times of our many activities coming up. Lots going on in November as well. See you in church! Audrey

Would you like to host Coffee Hour sometime in November? We could use some volunteers for November 10 and 24. Sign-up on the bulletin board or call and let us know if you can help out.

We do have the coffee hour schedule on the bulletin board for the whole year. Look at the dates and see if there is a Sunday(s) you can volunteer to serve. Find a friend and sign up together (No need to put on a full meal (just one thing is all you need to serve) some bars/cookies or some cheese/crackers or some fruit. If you have any questions give us a call. The coffee, lemonade, plates, napkins are all provided. Some volunteers like to serve more than one thing; we let them decide what they want to serve...we are all satisfied with one thing being served. We are just happy to have some volunteers serve. Thank you for your help and support! Fellowship/Coffee Hour is a fun time to spend some time together with of our church family. Come and join us!

Automatic Giving – Are you interested in giving to your church by “Automatic Giving?” If you are, stop by the church office and we will help you with the forms that need to be filled out. Very easy to do. You decide how much you want to give monthly and about the 10th of every month that amount will be taken out of your account. Another option you can do to give to your church is to set the church up on your automatic bill pay through your bank. With the busy schedules that many of you have and if you are unable to make it to church Automatic Giving would be a way to keep up with your faith promise to your church. Please consider giving this way.

Radio Broadcast Sponsors

On Sunday, October 6 the radio broadcast portion of the worship service was sponsored by Ruth and Bob Schmidt in memory of sister-in-law, Pat Mohr and dad, Albert Mohr.

For the month of November communion will be served at the Neillsville Retirement Community on Sunday, November 3. Our shut-ins enjoy it when you come.

For your information Phyllis Embke is now residing at the Neillsville Retirement Community. She is in Rm. M 7. If you have a chance, go and visit her or send her a card. I'm sure she would enjoy hearing from you.

Wedding in our Church

On Saturday, October 5, 2019 Jenna Hilke and Erik Sigurdson were united in marriage here at the United Church of Christ in Neillsville. Pastor Jacoba officiated at their wedding. Our prayers and congratulations go to Jenna and Erik.

Offering Envelopes for 2020

I will be working on the 2020 Offering Envelopes that will be offered to those that want them. If you do not have envelopes and wish to have them, please let Audrey know. These envelopes are very helpful to the money counters so if you have them please use them. Some of them did not get picked up last year. It's easier for the counters because your number is on the envelope. There is a line for your special offering if you give and if you give cash we have a record on your envelope. They will be issued in December. Watch for them.

Daylight Saving Time

ENDS Just a reminder don't forget to turn your clocks BACK on Sunday, November 3.

Neighbors In Need Special Offering

Thank you to all that donated to our special Neighbors In Need Offering. $290.00 was collected this year. Our next special offering will be the Christmas Fund.

Mark Your Calendars

On Sunday, November 24 following worship volunteers are needed to decorate our church for the Advent and Christmas season. It won't take long if we have many hands to help.

Advent Folders – The Advent Folders will be out on the table in the Narthex for those that like to use them. Our Advent offerings are very important – these monies are used for the missions we support in our local areas.

Stewardship Campaign: Because of you, Our Church Changes Lives."

What we do as a church makes a difference in people's lives and in the Neillsville community. To allow our church to carry out their work and missions, we are in need of cooperation from our members. The stewardship committee is asking every member to consider how you may share your time, talent and treasures. Please complete a 2020 Faith Promise card and turn it in on Stewardship Sunday, November 17th or mail it to the church prior to the 17th. Your Faith Promise card is below. More cards are in the pews and available from the church office. Last year only 27 Promise cards were returned. Our goal this year is have more involvement by church members. Our Faith Promises will be dedicated during worship on the 17th.

Inspirational Service on Sunday, November 10

The Stewardship committee will lead the service and share how "our church and members have changed lives" by donating their time, talent, and treasures.

Soup Luncheon Invitation

The congregation is invited to a soup luncheon hosted by the Stewardship Committee on November 17 following the service. The soup luncheon serves as "Thank You" and a way to show appreciation for the time, talent, and treasures that our members share to help our church help those in need.
