APRIL 2026 NEWSLETTER

Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! (Hebrews 13:2)

So welcome each other, in the same way that Christ also welcomed you, for God's glory. (Romans 15:7)

Dear Friends,

This has been an exciting few months for our beautiful church. We have recently celebrated two baptisms with more coming. We will soon be celebrating with our confirmands as they affirm their baptismal vows at the end of April, and we plan to welcome new members on Pentecost Sunday in May. In the midst of these beautiful celebrations, we have an active committee who has worked hard to create welcome gifts for visitors who choose to join us for worship on any given Sunday, and we have been talking about how best to invite and greet guests without overwhelming.

Offering the extravagant welcome that Jesus commands can be a challenge at times. A true invitational welcome means providing a space where all people feel comfortable to be their true authentic selves, without judgment or fear. Often we try to offer the welcome we want for ourselves and not always the welcome that the guest needs. An extrovert is likely to greet new faces with a lot of enthusiasm and exuberance that may be off-putting to a quiet, shy individual. Some visitors relish such an excited greeting, and some prefer to fly under the radar. Some want to slip in and out quietly, while others appreciate being offered the presence of a regular member to guide them through the worship service. We need to be discerning and accommodating when offering an invitation and welcome.

As we consider how best to invite and welcome others into our communal life, I'd like to encourage you to think about who you might reach out to and how you can offer the extravagant and honest welcome that they need. Perhaps you have a neighbor or friend who needs a "faith booster" or even someone you barely know. Sometimes an open and honest invitation from a stranger is more meaningful, someone who sees beyond their hurt, beyond the religious trauma and uncertainty they may have experienced in the past, someone who acknowledges this child of God who desperately needs to be in community with God's beloveds.

If you are reading this letter and have been absent from church life for some time, please know this is an invitation to you as well. Whoever you are and wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome and wanted! May you always know the extravagant welcome and love of God, who created you in God's own image to be the beautiful, amazing person you are, exactly as you are.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Julie

Thursday, April 2 – Maundy Thursday at UCC

6:30 PM worship with Communion

Friday, April 3 - Good Friday,

Noon until 3 PM - UCC Sanctuary

⁴⁵ From noon until three in the afternoon the whole earth was dark. ⁴⁶ At about three Jesus cried out with a loud shout, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani," which means, "My God, my God, why have you left me?" ⁵⁰ Again Jesus cried out with a loud shout. Then he died. (Matthew 27:45-46, 50)

In recognition of the three darkest hours in history, Neillsville United Church of Christ sanctuary will be open Friday, April 3, 2026 from noon to 3 p.m. for anyone to meditate on the Passion of Christ. There will be self-guided prayer stations throughout the sanctuary with simple interactive activities, scripture and prayer guides, and quiet music. Each person may proceed at their own pace and direction, or simply sit in the sanctuary for time of prayer and reflection.

In these days of turmoil and uncertainty, it is more important than ever to reflect upon the pain and suffering inflicted on Jesus by an oppressive government and religious authorities who simply did not understand the sacrificial love offered for all people. It is our hope that you may find some time to reflect on the events at Golgotha so that the beauty of Easter Resurrection will be all the more rich and fulfilling.

CENTERSHOT UPDATE

We're excited at the continual support of our Centershot program at Calvary. Currently we offer the program on opposite Wednesdays from JAM. While the program is still relatively new, we have been blessed with the opportunity to help kids and adults become more familiar with the archery equipment and the bible studies that go with it. We are ALWAYS looking to add more families, and we welcome anyone to come. All equipment is provided and there is no fee! Our group leaders do an awesome job of working with archers of all skill levels! The past few sessions, our focus has been on the Lenten season and how Jesus suffered and died to save us from our sin. We hope you'll consider stopping by and checking the program out! As we get further into spring, we will be discussing what the schedule will look like this summer and making plans for future growth. Please consider joining us on this journey and keep our program, and its success in your prayers.

April dates are: Wednesdays,

April 8 & 22, starting at 5:30 pm.

If you have any questions about Centershot, please email Dan Schroeder @ winasp@live.co

Volunteer Opportunities at NUCC

Did you know that there are volunteer opportunities for all ages, all abilities, all skill levels? God may just be calling you to offer your talents to the church in a new way. Some possibilities:

- Scripture Readers: All ages welcome! Usually includes 2-3 passages from the Revised Common Lectionary. If you have special interest in dramatic readings, please let Pastor Julie know.
- Children's Sermon: Pastor Julie has multiple resources to give ideas to tie into the scripture for each Sunday. This is a valuable part of our worship, reminding our children that they are important and included.
- Greeters: This is an important part of our outreach, reminding each person who steps through our doors that they are welcome and valued. Greeters welcome each person as they arrive and watch for any assistance that might be needed, especially if someone is identified as a guest and unfamiliar with our order of worship. If you are serving as a greeter and know that someone is new to our church, it might be helpful to pair them with a "regular member" who can guide them through the service if needed.
- Ushers: The primary responsibility of ushers is to collect offerings. After collection is complete, two ushers should bring the plates forward to place on the altar. Ushers should remain at the front, facing the altar until after the Prayer of Thanksgiving. They can return to their seats during the closing hymn. Secondary responsibility of ushers is to watch for people in the congregation who may need assistance.
- PowerPoint Projection: Having our order of worship projected on screen is an important part of our service, both for those in the sanctuary and those watching online. All ages are welcome! Volunteers should plan to arrive at least 30 minutes prior to worship to make sure that everything is working and announcements are running for early arrivals.
- Audio/Visual Team: We are always looking to expand our A/V team, monitoring sound system, radio broadcast and YouTube streaming. This is an important outreach for our church family. There are many who depend on these pieces when they are not able to be physically present in the sanctuary and solid sound system is highly important for those on site as well. Volunteers should plan to arrive at least 30 minutes prior to worship to make sure that everything is working okay.
- Radio Broadcast Sponsors: Our radio broadcast is a wonderful outreach for many members who cannot attend worship on site. As a sponsor, you can dedicate a broadcast to someone special, in memory of someone special or for any reason you choose.
- Coffee Fellowship: Gathering together after worship for fellowship is a wonderful way to be community, to show our care and concern for one another, to break bread together. This doesn't have to be extravagant; it should be simple snacks for people to munch while they visit. Feel free to talk to church office to get a "partner" if you want to provide snacks but lack the ability to serve or vice versa.
- Miscellaneous: Check the bulletin board in the back for additional volunteer opportunities. There are always sign-up sheets of some kind or another!

Baked Goods Auction Scheduled

Mark your calendar for Sunday, May 3, 2026 right after church in the fellowship hall. Remember, it's just not pies, we will auction off bars, muffins, casserole, hot dishes, or any other type of baked goods. Proceeds for this auction will go into the fundraising account line for future needs.

So now for the first step of this fundraiser, we need the help of our trusty bakers/cooks of the church. Please use the signup sheet in the narthex, if you are interested in making any items to be auctioned off. If you cannot make it to church to sign up for a baked good item, please call the church office and Janice will sign you up!

To keep the auction going smoothly, we are asking for no small quantities, therefore:

- bars to be from a 9 x 13 or larger pan
- cookies to be in a package of two (2) dozens
- muffins/cupcakes to be in packages of a dozen

Bidders, if you have a favorite pie or baked goods, talk to the bakers/cooks so you get the one you want and a good donation to the church; what a deal!

Thanks for your continued support and get ready to bid!

Emile Miller & Carla Marty

CHILI FEED

The chili feed held on March 11th was a success bringing in $1100. All of the food was donated. The chili was delicious and without a doubt the bars and cookies were as good as always. The help was awesome starting with browning the hamburger on Tuesday, setting tables, making chili, cutting cheese and bars, serving chili, waiting tables and cleanup including doing dishes. Thank you to everyone that volunteered in any way. Many hands make light work. The camaraderie and fellowship during these events is as important as any money raised. The funds will go to the general fund for church operations.

THANK YOU ALL!!!!
